

University of

Location 1, Manitoba forest visited on Sept 27th 2023

Temp cloudy +20° notice of moist in the soil.

Various types of fungi found on trees, soil, dead logs.
Some fungi seems to have been withering* away while some seems to be sporing.

The forest contains various types of trees, both decaying and healthy trees, with shrubs and grasses on the ground.
The forest has a lake and trees facing the lake various trees such as Manitoba maple, Amur maple, tall grass prairies, curly dock and so on make up the forest vegetation, while fungi such as Hypsizygia ulmaria elm oysters, veiled oyster, King Alfred's cake (Dalmanella con- centrica) and so on.